Good morning-

Thank you for contacting the Executive Ethics Board. The Executive Ethics Board administers the Ethics in Public Service Act for state employees and state-wide elected officials, but cannot help private individuals with their legal issues, which your email appears to be about.

The Washington State Bar Association (WSBA) offers research tools to locate private attorneys in your area by offering listings for each County Bar Association. You may access the County Bar Association listing on the WSBA website at <http://www.wsba.org/Legal-Community/County-Bar-Associations>.

If you cannot afford an attorney, and have a non-criminal legal problem, you may qualify for assistance from the NW Justice Project's CLEAR Coordinated Legal Advice, which can be reached Toll Free at 1-888-201-1014 or online at the following website:
http://www.nwjustice.org/about\_njp/clear.html.

In addition, if you are 60 or over, you may call CLEAR SENIOR at 1-888-387-7111 regardless of income.

Subject: Urgent Legal Case - Evidence of Government Misconduct

[EXTERNAL]

I am facing false felony charges in Chelan County Superior Court (Case #2410025304) after reporting serious crimes by county officials who interfered with a 911 medical emergency call. Complete case details, evidence, and documentation:
<https://ryanhellfiles.com>

Trial is approaching soon. I desperately need legal representation or media attention.
