Titus-

I never got a call I figured you must be extremely busy. Can we try to get a short call to go over this case this week please? I am in seattle, same address. I guess you said you were not aware of that. I was told I could do video hearings until told otherwise. I will call the clerk and try to get it set up from my end, but please let me know asap if there is anything I need to worry about, like being in the cross hairs of a pissed off judge for not driving over to wenatchee to attend this hearing. I was honestly told that provided I made one appearance, I would be allowed to do video court until otherwise stated. I have limited funds and transportation due to the state of damages the tow company caused on my vehicle while driving it (yes they actually did not TOW my vehicle, they drove it without authorization after I explicitly instructed dispatch as well as Jeremiah that nobody was to touch my vehicle without authorization or without me there.)

Anyhow, I appreciate your help man. Sorry if I sound frantic but this is a serious thing for a guy like me. And I was absolutely screwed and setup to lock heads by a crooked dispatch center and some unscrupulous folks in the canyon there. I would like to know what my way out is and if I agree to not press charges or sue anyone if they will drop their bogus alligation. Not a snowball chance in hell I committed ANY crime, and the trail of really brazen and idiotic actions on their part is going to be pretty obvious even if they all wear badges and call themselves saints and heros or whatever. Im sorry but these folks went to great lengths to STEAL from me and then they imprisoned the very person whom I was calling for medical aid for. This wasnt about a tow dispute. It was never about that. They tried to make a buck on that and I stepped around that and asked for my friend; who was being held in their garage. The actual threats were made to me, by the female as well as Jeremiah. The tow truck driver had tried to get me to pay "1,000 cash" and I eventually said "you were never authorized to do anything to my vehicle. You have no legal right to just take someones vehicle and perform a mock repair service then demand money or threaten to keep it. We can sort this out with a judge but I need my friend so we can leave". Tow driver spit and swore and called me names trying to start a fight. He turned to Jeremiah the homeowner and threw my keys to him and said "I dont want nothing to do with this piece of shit". I waited and stared at Jeremiah, who had some back and forth with tow operator who held his ground and persisted that he wanted nothing to do with my truck. I smiled and said "now give me my keys so we can leave, please". Jeremiah was outraged and said exactly "you aint getting your truck back." I said "maybe not today, but we can deal with that later then. So youre not giving me my truck back?" Jeremiah simply answered "fuck you. We tried to help you". I said "no, you tried to scam me. Thank god Im not stupid and know some law. Me and my friend will leave on foot. I'm confident Ill be compensated nicely for my vehicle should it be damaged or disappear between now and the time we get to state patrol where we are going for help.". Jeremiah said "you arent going anywhere." I said "yes I am. And my friend is too." Jeremiah said "shes with us, she is not leaving". I asked to speak to her and they said no.

At this point I am starting to think things are so far from the normal peramiter, and well into serious felony conduct by city workers.... this is a recipe for me to end up dead. I was unable to call for help. I made 3 additional 911 calls which were all fielded by the same female dispatcher. I asked to speak with state patrol and she said she could not patch me through. She said she isnt an operator. I stated that I am facing a situation where I believe me and especially my sick friend who needed aid, were facing loss of life if a nuetral third party leo cannot be brought on the line. Dispatch hung up on me. Jeremiah stated at about that time, that he had contacted his friend who is a Chelan deputy. They were on the way. I asked for what? He said you threatened to shoot the place up. I laughed i thought he was joking. Not something I would say. Not to mention I am not even mad at all throughout all of this. They were fuming pissed, not me.

You see; I made a standard call for emergency medical attention for a 60 year old type 2 diabetic who was going into insulin shock. They instead drove us outside of cell service, seperated us then tried to extort me with my vehicle after they STOLE it from where I parked it.

Further, Jeremiah's wife, who is also a dispatcher at Riverside EMS center with Jeremiah; she was the nastiest of this group. All exhibited some seriously shady conduct but it is my observation thatboth Jeremiah as well as the tow operators; were pushed into this incident reluctantly, by the female spouse, homeowner. She chastised tow operator when he relinquished my vehicle. She also had to repeatedly prod Jeremiah to follow thru. At the beginning of it as we sat in his garage thinking they were helping us.... she turned mean without reason; and left the room to yell at Jeremiah. He came back with a change of clothes, he had donned fire fighter gear.... and she scolded him yet again and he went once more inside the house, this time he came out with a Wenatchee city shirt and hat on. And then the neighbor drove over to jeremiahs right next door, driving a red hummer which I recognize as a parade truck....and he had the light bar on the entire time. I got video of that.

Then the tow truck showed up and they were in a newer International roll back style tow truck, bright red color truck; with signage which said "BCR Towing, Cashmere" or some 3 letter name I think, I need to check the pics for that though. It definately was not Mountain Towing thiugh, seems like that discrepency in the police report should matter though...

Anyhow.... on the TOW TRUCK was a SxS ATV... great big thing like polaris RZr or something. A man was driving my truck behind the tow truck as he pulled in. Jeremiah instructed me to go back in the garage but I came back out quickly and seen the tow truck was offloading the atv and the red parade HUMMER was now positioned sideways sort of blocking me...I told jeremiah that I never authoried any of this and I will pay for the help, but just like I told dispatch on the intial call; I DONT HAVE MUCH MONEY.

Tow driver orders me to his truck and he sat inside and wouldnt make eye contact with me, I knew what was next. I asked "how did you get my truck? He said "we found the keys to it inside nd we bought a new tire and wheel for it. Then he said "You owe me 1,000 dollars." CASH ONLY. I inspected the wheel and tire they provided. It was off of another ford suv likely. The wheel was much smaller and a lot different. The tire was dry rotted. To make matters worse they drove my vehicle with one of the other tires completely flat also, destroying nother wheel nd tire. Eventually when I was in jail, they simply handed the keys over to my friend and said head out. She broke down with two flats on snoqualmie pass. Luckilu. Upon being delivered to seattle by tow truck, the wheels they slapped on (mine) were not even hand tightened, Lugs were missing. The clutch was completely shot and worse yet, the transmission had catastrophic problem now too requiring a new transmission, all documented by tow and certified transmission shop.

These people prayed on me. These people endangered my friend multiple times in many ways. These people likely plotted to kill mewhen they realized they were not going to have an easy time with me as a target or mark for their pathetic and SHAMEFUL scam.

As much as I want to move on; here we sit with this absurd case of a bunch of idiot hicks who tried to pull a shameful scam on stranded motorist amidst a medical emergency

NO AMBULANCE WAS EVER CALLED
NO EMT EVER TRIAGED MY FRIEND

I imagine they will slice and dice this ten ways from sunday and try to totally bury me.... Im not mad though...honestly Because I know I am not a vile POS who prayed on two disabled people who were calling for medical help after being tricked into a detour which LIKELY was carefully layed out by the same scumbags.

Jeremiah tried to have me killed by the arresting officer. And they were likely about to do it when I spasmed and collapsed due to the severe agony and dehydration caused by frantially digging and pushing my truck out of 20+ miles of destert hard pan and shale rock, on a bare steel wheel under 90+ degree heat with no water and my trucks heat is on full blast always and has been for years.

This isnt something I want to persue but you have some very very sick people who fucked up bad. I am pretty sure the courts and all else must be complicit since the raw merits and evidence of this entire case point straight to my defense and its pretty obvious what has gone on out there. The fact this is dragging out to a court trial against ME is another criminal matter entirely in and of itself. Seems the judge might not have seen much of this case yet or he would quickly throw it out. Because there enough evidence to criminally charge about a half dozen Cheland court personnel who were present.

I just want to move on. Not looking to sue anyone. Not looking for payback. This is a painful reminder that the authorities are not our friends as citizens. And also scumbags will often call themselves "good samaritans" while extorting people. Eben while they are in need of emergency medical attention.
